“AD” - Barbera d'Asti - DOCG 2013

Appellation: Barbera d'Asti DOCG

Varietal: Barbera 100%

Vineyard: from two vineyards in the Luparia and Reale areas in the municipality of Camino in the Alessandria province of Piedmont. the wine's excellent structure is obtained through careful work in the vineyard, with a drastic reduction in the yield and a late harvest.

Soil: the light colored soil is marly - clayey and calcareous.

Alcohol Content: 14.5% Vol.

Remarks about the wine:

Agricola Dellavalle is thoroughly convinced that Barbera is an important symbol of the Monferrato territory's wine making culture; AD Barbera d'Asti is derived from the exclusive vinification in stainless steel of its own Barbera grapes, and fully reflects the typical characteristics of the vine, even with differences related to vintage.

Tasting and Pairing:

Barbera AD is an intense, full-bodied, well balanced red wine. Rich in color, it has good structure and low acidity. AD Barbera is derived from the exclusive vinification in stainless steel of Barbera grapes of our own production, and fully reflects the typical characteristics of the vine. This wine adapts well to a great number of Piedmont dishes.

Suggested serving temperature: 18°C (64 - 65°F)
