Vinification: The must is obtained by light pressing of the grapes and is subsequently cooled into steel thermal conditioned tank where the first alcoholic fermentation takes place, controlled at low temperatures (15-16 °C) as to enhance the perfumes and the delicacy of the wine. The "cuvée" of Le Cantorie is obtained by a meticulous mixing of wine preserved both in steel tanks and oak tree barrels for a maximum of 8 months.

Permanence on Yeasts: At least 30 months

Atmospheres in the Bottle: Approx. 4 Atmospheres

Tasting Notes: Its intense and fruity scent and its full and gentle taste will surely be loved by the most exigent connoisseurs. The particular cultivation allows to get a very fine and creamy foam, able to accompany the harmonious notes enveloping the palate: "emotions of taste" obtained thanks to a masterly wine making which provides a great part of the basic wine refined in small oak tree barrels. Suitable as an appetizer and for matching with the whole meal.

Production: 25,000 bottles

Suggested serving temperature: 4 - 6°C. (39 - 43°F)
